Today's Lead: Women's Equality Bill Revealed

Posted on Jun 05, Posted by Mike Muller Category The Eye-Opener

Gov. Cuomo finally released the legislation for his 10-point women's equality plan yesterday. The Senate poses the biggest hurdle for the act, due to the abortion measure. A spokesperson for the Senate Republican leader said the GOP could come to an agreement on all nine other measures, but they don't plan to bring the abortion part of the act up for a vote. Cuomo says he's unwilling to sever that provision from the other parts of the bill. Business interests also raised concerns that the legislation pose the risk of unnecessary legal action against employers.

Help us track and expose the culture of corruption

Political corruption seems to be all around us these days. Throughout the scandals, the Gotham Gazette has dug below the headlines to shed light where it's needed through The Eye-Opener and with award-winning watchdog reporting on city and state government. But we can't do this work without your generous support. That's why we're asking you to help us raise $20,000 between now and July 4. Please donate today.

Other Stories We're Following

Email: Harassment Victims Wanted Full Investigation By Assembly (Daily News)

Misconduct Claims Against NYPD Soar 22 Percent (Daily News)

Lopez Said To Be Fined Over Sexual Abuse (NY Times)

$25 Billion Schools Budget Would Be Record High For City (DNAinfo)

City's Parks Rank No. 2 In Survey Of 50 US Cities (NY Times)

NY, SUNY Union Agree On Mostly Flat Labor Deal (Associated Press)

Sandy Damage Forcing Yearlong Closure Of R Train Tunnel (Wall Street Journal)

Quinn Accuses Opponents Of Pandering On Wide Range Of Issues (Politicker)

Some Of Quinn's Fund-Raisers Have Checkered Pasts (NY Post)

Court: State Can't Rescind Empire Tax Cuts (Albany Times Union)

The Evolution Of Mayor Bloomberg (Wall Street Journal)

Tags: Tagged in: Civil Rights Gov. Andrew Cuomo women womens agenda