

Queens Development Plans Approved

by Dara L. Miles

Monday, November 17, 2008 12:00 AM -

After much debate and opposition, the City Council Thursday approved a plan to develop Willets Point, a polluted industrial area of Queens. To win support, the administration agreed to provide more affordable housing on the site and to protections for local businesses.Â