

Today's lead stories: Lopez wanted hushed settlement; NYPD social network surveillance

Posted on Sep 12, Posted by Mike Muller Category City

The sexual harassment scandal continues to remain the top news today. The News reports that it was Assemblyman Vito Lopez who wanted the settlement payment to be kept from the public. Meanwhile, the Post finds sources who say Gov. Cuomo is that Assembly Speaker Silver may not survive the scandal. Silver has hired

worried

Mayor Bloomberg's former press secretary to help manage the situation. And finally, the fallout from Lopez's diminished stature has affected

a number of primary races.

More headlines:

NYPD issues rules for use of social media during investigations

In quest for river's power, an underwater test spin

Twitter must produce Occupy protester's tweets: judge

Taxi TV to tell riders of scams

Tags: Tagged in: Gov. Andrew Cuomo governing scandal sexual harassment

S

heldon Silver

Vito Lopez