

Headlines: Police kill unarmed man; 2013 party changes required this month

Posted on Oct 05, Posted by Mike Muller Category City

A police officer shot and killed an unarmed man after pulling him over on the Grand Central Parkway last night, and the passenger says his hands were on the wheel when it happened. It's still unclear why the officer shot his gun. The driver, an Army reservist, was pulled over for cutting the officer's truck off.

In the Press...

2013 New York primary voting requires any party changes by Oct. 12 (NY Times)

Ethics panel issues subpoenas to Assembly ethics committee (Albany Times Union)

Loitering rules in projects are too vague, judge says (NY Times)

Nearly 4,000 participants in Bloomberg's program for young minority men (Albany Times Union)

Interest lags in rent-stabilized apartments in Lower Manhattan (Wall Street Journal)

Survey shows subway announcements getting clearer (Daily News)

First non-Native American settler in Manhattan was Dominican immigrant (Daily News)

Tags: Tagged in: Civil Rights crime NYPD police department shootin g