

Headlines: Kelly wants grand jury probe of shooting; GOP ahead in Senate races

Posted on Oct 09, Posted by Mike Muller Category City

Commissioner Kelly has called for a grand jury investigation into the fatal shooting of a driver by police last week on the grand Central Parkway. The officer is said to be 'anxious' to testify in order to clear his name. It is for prosecutors to bring fatal shootings by the police before a grand jury. Queens District Attorney Richard Brown is ultimately

routine

in charge of empaneling a grand jury and is investigating the shooting already. Meanwhile, Mayor Bloomberg says appointing an inspector general

to oversee the NYPD would bring crime back to the streets of the city.

In the Press...

GOP shows lead in state Senate races (Albany Times Union)

Gang member conviction as a terrorist for girl's death is up on appeal (Associated Press)

Tax stances separate 2013 hopefuls (Wall Street Journal)

Prosecutors tie Staten Island Rep. Michael Grimm's ex-associate to mob (NY Times)

Bronx residents lambast council redistricting plan (Daily News)

Cuomo's fracking dilemma poses political risk beyond New York (Bloomberg)

Grand plan for toxic site in Brooklyn is scorned and celebrated (NY Times)

Tags: Tagged in: Civil Rights commissioner raymond kelly crime Mayor
Michael Bloomberg

NYPD

police department

police reform

shooting