

Weekend Roundup: Gas Drilling | Teen Pregnancy

Posted on Mar 04, Posted by Administrator Category City

GAS DRILLING: Gov. Andrew Cuomo was about to give the go-ahead to allow drilling for natural gas in New York using the contentious process known as hydraulic fracturing — until conversations with environmentalist Robert F. Kennedy Jr., convinced him to hold off, The Associated Press reported Saturday .

TEEN PREGNANCY ADS: A new public information campaign announced by the city Sunday aims to show teenagers the potential consequences of becoming parents when they do not have the emotional and financial means to support children. "We must encourage responsibility and send the right message, especially to young people," said Human Resources Administration Commissioner Richard Doar in a statement (Gothamist , Staten Island Advance).

Other Stories We're Following

'Vision' For Proposed Domino Factory Site Redevelopment (Capital)

Silver-Backed Constitutional Amendment Would Benefit Friend (NY Post)

How Cuomo Keeps Tabs On The Press (Albany Times Union)

Bracing For Bloomberg's Ban On Large Sugary Drinks (Wall Street Journal)

Struggle To Meet Demand For Pre-K Seats : (Daily News)

Chelsea Galleries Squeezed By Development (WNYC)

Contractors Complain About Paid Sick Leave Proposal (Crain's)

The Battle Over Housing At Hudson River Park Pier (NY Times)

Tags: Tagged in: eyeopener headlines