

Today's Lead Story: Riot In Flatbush Over Shooting of Teen

Posted on Mar 14, Posted by David Howard King Category City

Protests Continue Over Flatbush Shooting

Wednesday saw the third day of protests in Flatbush following the shooting death of 16-year-old Kimani Gray on Saturday. Gray was shot seven times in the front and back of the body by New York Police Department officers. Police officials say Gray brandished a handgun and pointed it at them. A number of community members have voiced skepticism of the official police account. Protesters clashed with police yesterday at 54th Street and Church Avenue. It isn't clear how many were arrested. The shooting has only heightened tensions in a community where police are aggressively pursuing gangs.

Other Stories We're Following

Boyland's Ex-Aide Said to Plan Guilty Plea (NY Times)

Battle at Beach Club to Rebuild After Storm (City Room)

Fewer People Abandoning the Bronx (NY Times)

Minimum Wage Issue Pressures Senate Coalition (Albany Times Union)

Judge Denies SAFE Act Injunction (Albany Times Union)

Klein, Law Partner Tag Team to Score Big on Appointments (Riverdale Press)

Lhota Has Raised \$730k For Mayoral Bid (Daily News)

Tags: Tagged in: Joe Lhota Kimani Gray William Boyland