

Today's Headlines: Boston's Effect On NYC

Posted on Apr 17, Posted by Mike Muller Category The Eye-Opener

Police Commissioner Ray Kelly said that there have been no specific threats to New York City, but the department is reviewing security plans for upcoming public events. The police received 77 reports of suspicious packages in the past 24 hours, while the norm is 21. La Guardia Airport's main terminal was temporarily evacuated after an unattended parcel was found. Mayor Bloomberg used the Boston incident to highlight that the city must remain vigilant against terrorists and that "special interests" must not shape security strategies. He continues to take the subway part of the way to City Hall. The Saudi national that the NY Post had reported on was a witness, not a suspect.

Other Stories We're Following

Raising The Salary Bar For Some State Workers (Albany Times Union)

Medical Marijuana Gaining Steam In Albany, Cuomo Stalls (Daily News)

A Bid To Make Peace In The Food Truck Wars (WNYC)

NBC/Marist Poll Shows Weiner Could Threaten Quinn In Primary (NBC)

Following Scandals, A Bunch Of Plans For Reforming Albany (Gotham Gazette)

Adult Daycares: Unregulated And High Profit (WNYC)

Infographic Plots Income Inequality By Subway Stop (The New Yorker)

Cuomo Calls For Anti-Corruption Reforms (Gotham Gazette)

Paid Sick Leave Bill Likely To See Vote Next Week (Gotham Gazette)

Tags: Tagged in: Civil Rights NYPD terror