

Today's Headlines: New Corruption Cases

Posted on May 07, Posted by Mike Muller Category The Eye-Opener

State Sen. John Sampson was charged yesterday with embezzlement, obstruction of justice, and lying to investigators. Among those charges, prosecutors accuse him of trying to get a list of cooperating witnesses in his case so that he could "take them out."

He faces up to 120 years

behind bars. Also yesterday, Assemblyman William Boyland was charged with mail fraud conspiracy

- for the second time. In the past seven years,

32 state level officials have been snared in corruption cases.

Other Stories We're Following

New York City Gun Giveaway Planned By Armed Citizen Project (Daily News)

Use Of Stop-And-Frisk Drops By Half (Wall Street Journal)

Senate Confirms First Black Women On Top Court (Albany Times Union)

Stop-And-Frisk Critics Start Voter Drive (Associated Press)

Cuomo Sees Bills And Ratings Slip Up (Daily News)

DiNapoli: Fund Value Rebounding (Albany Times Union)

Quinn Offers Plan To Add Slots For Gifted In City Schools (NY Times)

Catsimatidis Is Tied To His Gristedes Chain As Candidate (NY Times)

Developers Submit Plans For Lower East Side's Seward Park Site (DNAinfo)

Venture Capitalist Fred Wilson On The Next Mayor (WNYC)

NYPIRG's Mahoney: Senate Hearing On NYC Campaign Financing A 'Kangaroo Court'
(Gotham Gazette)

Tags: Tagged in: corruption crime eye on albany governing State
Sen. John Sampson