

Today's Headlines: Scandal Mania vs Legislative Agenda!

Posted on May 14, Posted by Mike Muller Category The Eye-Opener

Gov. Cuomo yesterday vowed to keep pushing his legislative agenda in face of "scandal mania." He's been using the recent wave of "quote, unquote scandals" to push ethics reform , but still wants movement on his other priorities, such as women's equality, the creation of a local government panel, and casino gaming. He also the press for letting scandals become all-consuming. Senate Republican leader Dean Skelos is using the investigations as a reason to oppose public financing

blamed

, saying it will put public money into the hands of untrustworthy people. Cuomo yesterday revealed a proposal

for one of his priorities, reforming the Long Island Power Authority, calling for a three year rate freeze and a takeover by Public Service Electric & Gas Co. of New Jersey.

Other Stories We're Following

City Board Of Elections Warns Of Mayoral Election Disaster (Daily News)

Advocacy Group Opposed To Flushing Meadows Soccer Arena (Capital)

Bloomberg Defends Queens Soccer Stadium (NY Post)

Liu Campaign Most Aggressive In Courting Muslims (Daily News)

Indian Point Nuclear Plant Draws Mixed Grades (WNYC)

City Seeks Developers to Restore Staten Island Marsh (DNAinfo)

State To Use Federal Grant To Pay For Homes Damaged By Irene and Lee (Albany Times Union)

Quinn Would Double Newsstand Maximum Price To \$10 (NY Post)

Tags: Tagged in: campaign finance reform corruption Dean Skelos ethics

Gov. Andrew Cuomo

long island power authority

public finance

reform