

Today's Lead: Cuomo Creates Commission To Investigate Corruption

Posted on Jul 03, Posted by Mike Muller Category The Eye-Opener

Gov. Cuomo yesterday followed through on threats to establish a commission to investigate corruption in Albany after the legislature failed to pass any bills addressing the recent rash of scandals there. The commission will recommend cases against public officials and suggest changes to election and campaign fund-raising laws. It can issue subpoenas and examine witnesses under oath and it's slated to issue a preliminary report by year's end. Many of the panels members have ties to the governor. Police Commissioner Ray Kelly and Former Manhattan DA Robert Morgenthau are special advisors to the commission.

Other Stories We're Following

City Finally Approved For .NYC Domain Names (Politicker)

Quinn Awards \$210,000 To Nonprofits That Helped Her Campaign (Daily News)

Complaints Against NYPD Cops Mirror Stop-And-Frisk Locations (Daily News)

NYPD Crime Stat Review Shows Need For Transparency (NY Times)

City Officials Disclose Trips Paid For By Outside Groups (Wall Street Journal)

Stats Show Bloomberg Is Wrong On Race Comments (Daily News)

Utilities Sued For 120 Sandy-Burned Homes (Associated Press)

Red Cross Awards Organization \$2.9 Million For Sandy Recovery (Associated Press)

Tags: Tagged in: corruption eye on albany Gov. Andrew Cuomo governin
g M
oreland Commission