

Today's Lead: Council Overrides Stop-And-Frisk Vetoes

Posted on Aug 23, Posted by Mike Muller Category The Eye-Opener

The City Council yesterday voted to override Mayor Bloomberg's veto of two stop-and-frisk reform bills known as the Community Safety Act. The inspector general bill override passed with a vote of 39-10, while the profiling bill override passed 34-15. Speaker Quinn supported the inspector general measure but opposed the profiling bill. She said she doesn't expect any conflict between the inspector general and a federal court-appointed monitor mandated earlier this month. Bloomberg vowed legal action against the profiling bill.

Other Stories We're Following

Taxpayer Cost Of Housing Prisoners: \$167,000 Per Inmate (NY Post)

Up To 50 Inmates On Rikers Brawl For An Hour (Daily News)

Ratner Looks To Sell Majority Stake In Atlantic Yards (Daily News)

Bangladeshi Enclave Grows In City Line (The Brooklyn Bureau)

Greenpoint Building May Have Split Entrance For Affordable Tenants (Crain's)

Thompson Supporters Cite His Savviness As Board Of Ed President (WNYC)

Comptroller Debate Is Nearly Friendly (NY Times)

Tags: Tagged in: NYPD NYPD inspector general police reform stop-and-f risk