

US Government

by {ga=ggstaff}

Wednesday, March 14, 2012 03:10 PM - Last Updated Wednesday, July 30, 2014 03:28 PM

Department of Health and Human Services - Health and Human Services and all its constituent agencies.

Environmental Protection Agency - A vast site, searchable by zip code. Find enviro data, learn about the EPA's latest endeavors. Links, links, links.

Government Printing Office - Read about the agency whose job it is to "Keep America Informed."

Peace Corps - Currently 413 New Yorkers are Peace Corps volunteers serving in 73 countries. Since 1961, when the Peace Corps was created, thousands of New Yorkers have joined the Peace Corps.

The White House - The official site of the nation's Executive Branch.

THOMAS: U.S. Congress on the Internet - A surprisingly easy search engine for bills, legislation, and historical documents of the U.S. Congress.

US House - Find out representative(s) for your district and state. The latest news and press releases. Info on committees, special task forces, roll calls and other essential facts about the 106th Congress.

US Senate - Access to all imaginable info on the Senate. "This week in History" and the Senate's Art collection are especially recommended.